

Nomination of a Dependant

(Form to be completed by former members of the NGUKPS (the Gas scheme) only)

The Group provides for a pension to be paid to a Dependant following the death of a member. If you are married or in a civil partnership at the date of your death, your legal spouse or registered civil partner will automatically receive the Dependant's pension (even if you are separated) and you do not need to complete this form. The Group Trustee can only consider paying a Dependant's pension to any other person if you are single, widowed, divorced or your civil partnership has been legally dissolved. If you are not married or do not have a surviving registered civil partner, it may be possible for the Group Trustee to pay a pension to another person who was dependent on you. The nomination form below is for you to notify the Group Trustee of any dependant you may have.

A Dependant is a person who is financially dependent on or interdependent with you at the date of your death. You can only nominate a child if they are permanently incapable of financial self-support through a physical or mental disability. In the event of your death, the child will be subject to a review of their health by the Group Trustee's Medical Adviser, who will decide with the eligibility criteria for the payment of a child pension is met.

Please give details of a person who is dependent on you whom you wish the Group Trustee to consider for a Dependant's pension.

I fully understand that:

- the Group Trustee is not bound by my wishes and that the opinion of the Group Trustee shall be final as to whether or not the nominated person satisfies the eligibility conditions for treatment as a Dependant at the time of my death;
- in the event of my death the Group Trustee will request evidence to support a claim for a Dependant's pension and may make enquiries about any other person(s) who could also be considered as a dependant;
- if I am married or have a surviving registered civil partner at the date of my death, my spouse or surviving registered civil partner will receive the Dependant's pension irrespective of this nomination; and
- the Group Trustee may delegate the above powers and discretions to such other persons as they think fit.

I understand that this form will be retained by the Group Trustee and not disclosed to any party until my death, when appropriate privacy information, as required under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), will be provided to the beneficiaries.
